

2.6.1 –

As the institution has single faculty (faculty of arts) and single programme of B.A., there is limited scope for the course outcome. However, the wide range of optional subjects provides an opportunity to have knowledge of variety of subjects. Besides, the institution is trying to seek permission to commence the faculty of commerce and science. The faculties engage themselves in spreading awareness regarding competitive examinations.

The following are the outcomes of the programmes

- To have better understanding of the things.
- To sharpen the faculties of thinking and feeling.
- To ensure all round development of the personality.
- To have eligibility for particular job.
- To seek better opportunities of self employment.
- To become a law biding citizen of the nation and subsequently of the world.
